8	This is one of my favourite electives until now. the perfect stress busting activities which helps us connect with ourselves and our peers. The course taught me to perceive spaces in a very different light and understand how various elements such as repetition, rhythm, tempo etc impact how we compose and perceive spaces and behaviour.

8	If aiming for a final act, the activities could be slightly better structured
10
11	It got a little less engaging towards the last with the group activities mostly because most students didn't show up. Classes like regular in the end too would have worked better
12	I feel more games during the sessions would be helpful

14	Make it a GPA course
15	a proper structure.

18	Make it a GPA course
19	It can actually include a street play or skit for the final outcome which would help in personality development and a bit of acting skills
