1	The course was good and we learned alot. There's possibility of exploring more within the idea of the course.
2	Overall course was learnable and enjoyable. However, a few more days as addition would have greatly appreciated. That would have helped students work precisely.
3	It was good
4	It could have been more interactive and have case study exercises
5	None
6	able to know about more topics
7	The course was a great refresher for clearing our basics on Contour understanding and development
8	This course has been incredibly helpful and has greatly enhanced my learning experience.
9	It was well structured and interactive course.
11	The course structure was helpful but the course duration was very crunched and could have extended for few more days to achieve the knowledge required for further semesters. Also the exercises and assignments should be organised properly. I believe that the flow of exercises were not in sync.
12	Well structured and enjoyed the course and helpful
13	The course didn't seem challenging enough, and I had expected to learn more about the technicalities of ground modulation.
14	it was interesting exploring the layers of contours
15	The course was highly engaging and provided a refreshing shift towards practical and technical aspects of the subject. I genuinely appreciated the hands-on approach and would strongly recommend incorporating this type of practical subject during the semester. The focus on technical perspectives offered valuable insights and felt like a breath of fresh air compared to the more abstract, graphics-driven work that often dominates. I am eager to engage in more technical and application-based work, as I find it far more relevant and beneficial for real-world practice. That said, I was expecting a greater emphasis on technical detailing and the opportunity to work on actual project scenarios. While the course leaned towards abstract design and narrative, which mirrored the studio work, I believe there is significant potential to expand the technical component. Incorporating more detailing exercises and real-world project work would greatly enhance the learning experience and better prepare students for professional practice. Overall, the course was insightful, but increasing the focus on technical detailing and practical applications would make it even more impactful
16	The course could be more detailed and well planned in terms of content to be taught.
17	THE COURSE WAS SHORT N SIMPLE .LEARNED NEW THINGS BUT NEEDED MORE DETAIL ORIENTED .
18	None
19	not at all satisfactory

1	The instructor was helpful and provided timely inputs and explained the exercises properly.
2	He explained things very well.
3	Sir was very interactive
5	I truly admire your dedication to ensuring every student understands the material.
6	Tapan Sir helped us understanding complex contour reading and techniques. He helped and stayed back extra hours to us individually
8	He was very approachable and used to sit for extra hours to clear all the doubts in group and also individually. The discussion and sessions conducted by him were very fruitful.
9	.
10	The insights and knowledge provided by the instructor were really helpful and the concepts were explained very well. He is very helpful to students.
11	Helpful
12	Tapan Sir was available to clear all doubts and very patient in explaining concepts
13	The instructor was effective in communicating the concepts and stimulated interest in the subject matter in class.
14	Tapan Sir is an exceptional teacher and a genuinely dedicated mentor. His passion for teaching and ensuring that every student learns without bias is truly commendable. His primary goal is to help students understand and grow, and he puts in the effort to explain concepts patiently???whether individually or during class. He is always willing to repeat explanations to ensure clarity, reflecting his deep commitment to student success. Tapan Sir clearly understands the significance of this subject for practical work, and he rightly emphasizes its importance. His guidance during group discussions and one-on-one sessions has been incredibly valuable, providing practical insights that enhance our learning experience. However, one area for improvement is communication. At times, what he intends to convey doesn't align with how it is expressed, leading to occasional misunderstandings. Refining his language and communication skills would help bridge this gap and further elevate his teaching. Despite this, his knowledge, dedication, and practical approach make him an invaluable asset. I believe he would be an excellent mentor in the studio, and students would greatly benefit from his expertise and real-world perspective
15	was not able to teach theory very effectively. Didnt make the topics very interesting.
16	The tutor was very helpful and approachable. That being said, there can be a higher tinge of clarity while explaining concepts with imaginable and simple examples.
17	HE IS A GOOD TUTOR . THE CONCEPTS TAUGHT WERE CONVEYED .
18	None
19	not at all satisfactory
